NZ PERFORMANCE CAR

Media kit

NZ Performance Car is New Zealand's leading voice in the performance and modified vehicle scene, and has covered it since the 1990s. Its audience runs from younger, hands-on modifiers to established professionals with discretionary income. They follow trends, invest in their cars, and influence what the people around them buy.

Audience

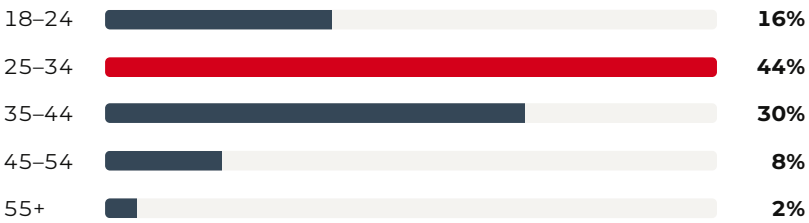

Who you can reach through NZ Performance Car's channels.

115,000 people in our first-party audience

New Zealanders who follow or engage with NZ Performance Car on social media, subscribe to our emails, or visit our website, over the last 12 months. People on more than one channel are counted once where the platforms allow it.

Campaigns that need wider reach can extend this with lookalike and interest-based audiences.

Reaching the audience

There are three main ways to reach this audience, and campaigns usually combine elements of each. Every campaign ends with a report.

Paid social to our audience

We run your ads from our own ad accounts to people who already follow and engage with NZ Performance Car. You reach the audience without building it first.

$1–$4 CPM
Typical cost per 1,000 impressions on our audiences, from our own Meta campaigns

Content from the NZPC team

Product and business profiles, test drives, expert guides, and sponsored posts. Written and photographed by the team that creates NZ Performance Car's content.
